

Tanya be Good

neuhaus.fm

Did you hear of the girls from the hood Singing dark songs of legend van Zandt
All the kids shouting Tanya be Good Singing sad songs seems so much fun

What would Townes do if he'd come along while the Tanyas performing his song He would shout like the kids from the hood dancing crazy Tanya be good

Did you hear of this sound from the north soothing banjos while surfing dark clouds Mellow wheeping through the melody line
All these voices will never decline

Ride the blue horse, climb to the sky rather gambling, waitin around to die baby listen, don't take me wrong singing only for the sake of the song

Let those blue waves roll through the sky down to Nashville whenever we try baby listen, we all sing along
singing only for the sake of the song
